Ranbir Kapoor's 'Ramayana' Eyed for Rs 4,000 Crore Box Office Milestone

Film trade analyst Vishek Chauhan believes Ranbir Kapoor's upcoming epic 'Ramayana' has the potential to become India's first film to cross ₹4,000 crore worldwide. The film is being compared to 'Dhurandhar' for its collection potential.

Filmmaker Nitesh Tiwari's ambitious project, 'Ramayana', starring Ranbir Kapoor in a pivotal role, is being eyed by the industry for its potential to shatter box office records. Film trade analyst and exhibitor Vishek Chauhan has expressed optimism about the film's commercial prospects. Chauhan suggests that 'Ramayana' possesses the necessary elements to achieve an unprecedented box office milestone. He specifically highlighted the film's potential to surpass the historic worldwide collection previously set by the film 'Dhurandhar'. This projection places 'Ramayana' in contention to become India's first-ever film to breach the ₹4,000 crore mark at the global box office, signaling a significant moment for Indian cinema if achieved.

CBFC Censorship: 'Supergirl' Faces Muted Dialogues and Deleted Scenes

The Central Board of Film Certification (CBFC) has mandated several cuts for the Hollywood movie 'Supergirl' before its scheduled release. The film, set to premiere tomorrow, June 26, has undergone a review process by the board. During the certification process, the CBFC ordered specific dialogues to be muted. Words such as 'whore', 'bitch', and 'balls' have been lines. Additionally, a visual depicting a middle finger has been entirely removed from the film. These censorship decisions reflect the board's approach to maintaining content standards for theatrical releases in India. The extent of these edits suggests a thorough examination of the film's content by the CBFC.

Karisma Kapoor: Why Actresses Avoided Madhuri Dixit's 'Dil To Pagal Hai' Role

On the occasion of her 52nd birthday, insights into Karisma Kapoor's iconic role in Yash Chopra's 1997 film 'Dil To Pagal Hai' are resurfacing. Kapoor, a prominent star of the 90s and early 2000s, revealed that many actresses were hesitant to accept the part of Nisha. The reluctance stemmed from the challenge of sharing screen space and performing dance numbers alongside the highly acclaimed Madhuri Dixit. According to Kapoor, actresses feared the competition and the pressure of a dance face-off with Dixit, who wa...
